Hi Misty,

Here's a quick rundown of what we've been up to this week.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT:

- LIGHT UP THE NIGHT: Landmarks aglow with the Olympic spirit
- LET FREEDOM RING: Celebrating El Grito at City Hall
- KITTEN CLUB: The newest residents of the L.A. Zoo make their debut
- 9-11: Remembering the fallen, honoring extraordinary bravery
- LEGACY OF ACHIEVEMENT: Celebrating Latino Heritage Month

DETAILS:

LA2028

It's official: the Summer Olympic and Paralympic Games are coming home to Los Angeles in 2028!

Our successful bid will bring the Olympics to the U.S. for the first time in a generation, and it is an amazing gift to the young people of L.A. The agreement we struck with the International Olympic Committee gives us up to $160 million to invest in youth sports programs, starting right now, to help make L.A. the healthiest city in America.

When 2028 arrives, it will be L.A.'s third time hosting the most talented athletes on the planet and visitors from across the globe. And they'll land in a city that is building an incredible future and embodies the heart of American values: inclusiveness, diversity, generosity, and unity. That's who we are — and I can't wait for the world to see it.

Thanks for reading! As always, I'd love to get your feedback on how we are doing on Facebook & Twitter.
